TAX RETURN PREPARATION AUTHORIZATION

We appreciate the opportunity to advise you regarding tax matters and preparing your 2025 tax return. To ensure a complete understanding between us, we are stating the following pertinent assumptions about our advice. Please indicate your agreement by signing at the bottom of the page.

We will prepare all tax returns in accordance with Statements on Standards for Tax Services issued by the AICPA, and will comply with the AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct, including the ethical principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence, and due care.

You are responsible for the substantial accuracy of your financial records, and the full and accurate disclosure to us of all relevant facts affecting the return(s). You also have final responsibility for the tax return and, therefore, you should review the return carefully before signing the return or the authorization for us to electronically file it.

In accordance with federal law, in no case will we disclose your tax return information to another tax return preparer outside of our firm, or to any other third party for any purpose, without first receiving your consent.

If your return is required to be paper filed, then this signature serves as authorization for us to prepare a paper return.

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with us.

The return(s) may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in our fees for preparation of the tax return(s).

The fee for preparing and filing your tax return does not include any follow up requested by the IRS for additional documents or information, ID verifications, responding to IRS audits or changing the return at your request based on new additional information not originally provided to us.
